

A photograph showing a group of soldiers in silhouette against a bright, low sun or moon in a dark sky. The soldiers are standing in a line, and a military vehicle is visible on the right side of the frame. The scene is set in a field or a similar outdoor environment.

There are over 150 reasons out there for the warfighter to feel better protected.

www.northropgrumman.com/firefinder

▼ FIREFINDER

Northrop Grumman is proud to have developed and produced over 150 AN/TPQ-36 Firefinder Operations Central shelters for the Army and Marine Corps. This system has saved countless lives in Iraq and Afghanistan by detecting, acquiring, and tracking enemy fire. Our experienced engineering and production staff continues to make and improve the highest quality Firefinder Operations Central shelters available. Making the warfighter safer and advancing the cause of freedom around the world.